Scavolini

The Scavolini line allows a tasteful, rational take on all spaces. Thanks to a wide range of products, Scavolini takes up different styles and desires, including those of the public who wish to make their own home unique through design.

Italian classics continue to mesmerise: wood finishes and painstaking care for details are the distinguishing traits of the Madeleine kitchen from the Scavolini Basic line, a winning model thanks to the harmonious balance between tradition and contemporary taste. The model is an interpretation of the dream family space, combining various areas of taste, from country rustic to classic, even touching upon the latest new trends in the international market.
